

10th Annual
United Religions Initiative
New Year's Eve
at Green Lake*

Walking Meditation:

"...Creating Cultures of Peace..."

Wednesday, December 31st ~ 3:30PM

Music, Prayer & Song followed by a reflective walk around the lake!

Meet us near the Green Lake Community Center;
7201 East Green Lake Drive North (98115)

Featuring blessings from many faith and spiritual traditions!

Baha'i Faith: Nancy Coleman
Cha'an Buddhism: Sibyl Lundy
Catholic Youth: Anastasia Lindquist
First Peoples: Debra Lajimodiene
Goddess: Suzanna McCarthy
Islam: Jamal Rahman

Judaism: Jon Ramer
Mevlevi Sufism: Suleyman Scott Hofmann
Pagan ~ Wiccan: Chris & Lila Kapcewicz
Unitarian Universalism: Steven Greenebaum
Vedic Tradition: Yanadevi Viniko
Zen: Anil Singh-Morales

The purpose of the United Religions Initiative is:

- ♥ to promote enduring, daily interfaith cooperation,
- ♥ to end religiously motivated violence and
- ♥ to create cultures of peace, justice and healing for the Earth and all living beings.

Read more at www.uri.org.

For more information, call Karen Lindquist 206.783.1618 or Jamal Rahman 206.633.0150

*Co-sponsored with the Interfaith Council of WA www.interfaithcouncil.com,
Northwest Interfaith Community Outreach & Compassionate Action Network www.compassionateactionnetwork.com/

OPEN HOUSE 6:00PM

Warm up with coffee, tea, cocoa,
& homemade soup following the walk in the First Peoples tradition of hospitality!
INTERFAITH COMMUNITY CHURCH
1763 NW 62nd Street in Ballard.
www.interfaithcommunitychurch.org

