

9th Annual

New Year's Eve at Green Lake

Walking Meditation for the Care of Creation

Monday, December 31st

3:30PM

Join us for chant, music, song, and prayers from diverse spiritual traditions followed by a candlelight walk around the lake

Bring a candle (in a container) to light the darkness — and one for a friend!

Location: Meet us near the

Green Lake Community Center

7201 East Green Lake Drive North (zip: 98115)

This is a UNITED RELIGIONS INITIATIVE annual event (www.uri.org) created by the local URI Cooperation Circle of INTERFAITH COMMUNITY CHURCH and supported by NORTHWEST INTERFAITH COMMUNITY OUTREACH.

Read more on the Interfaith Council of WA calendar: www.interfaithcouncil.com

For more info, call Jamal Rahman 206.633.0150 or Karen Lindquist 206.783.1618

The Walking Meditation for the Care of Creation is Endorsed by:

Awakening the Dreamer, Bet Alef Meditative Synagogue, Cascade Climate Network,
Cascadia Convergence, Church Council of Greater Seattle, Climate Dialogues, Earth Ministry, For the Grandchildren,
Interfaith Creation Festival Year of Dialogue and Action, Interra Project, Institute of Noetic Sciences NW, Intercommunity Peace and Justice Center, Interfaith Council of WA, Network of Spiritual Progressives, Puget Sound Community Card, St Marks Cathedral in the World, St Patrick Church, Women in Black...and more....

Join us in building community:

OPEN HOUSE

6:00PM

INTERFAITH COMMUNITY CHURCH

1763 NW 62nd Street in Ballard 98107

www.interfaithcommunitychurch.org

Enjoy homemade soup and fry bread ~ a First Peoples tradition of hospitality hosted by Reverend Debra Lajimodiere, First Peoples spiritual leader and interfaith minister.

Also, more music, song, conversation and fun!

All People Welcome!