

Praise & Thanksgiving for the Care of Creation

Interfaith Worship Celebration

A family friendly celebration of the wonder of creation and our call to care for the planet!

Sunday, November 18th
3:00 - 5:00pm

Location:

St Patrick Church

2702 Broadway Avenue East, Seattle, WA 98102

Join NICO and St Patrick Church in this collaborative experience of interfaith worship, spirituality and music honoring the sacred Native American traditions and the wisdom of the Abrahamic faiths:

Native American – Si Swin Klawe Laurel Boucher, Red Cedar Circle

Jewish – Rabbi Ted Falcon, Bet Alef Meditative Synagogue

Christian – Rev. Don Mackenzie, University Congregational UCC

Muslim – Brother Jamal Rahman, Interfaith Community Church

Bahá'í Faith – Katy Porray, Seattle Bahá'í Community

Please join us for a reception -- and homemade cookies -- following the program!

For more information, contact: John Hale: jehale@earthlink.net; 425.865.0659

Special Thanks to:

Fr. Pat Clark and St Patrick Church (www.stpatsseattle.org) for hosting this gathering and keeping the interfaith spirit alive; Rev. Karen Lindquist for her advice and insight in organizing this event; Rev. Debra Lajimodiere for her First Peoples' 4 Direction Opening and Closing Prayer (www.interfaithcommunitychurch.org); St Pat's Director of Music, Laura Ash, for coordinating music and sound; Interfaith Creation Festival (www.interfaithcreationfest.org) for endorsing this as an official "Year of Interfaith Dialogue and Action for the Care of Creation" event; The Interfaith Council of WA (www.interfaithcouncil.com) for endorsing this event.

Directions to St Patrick Church:

St Patrick Church is located at the corner of Broadway Avenue East and East Edgar Street, one block east of Harvard Ave East (and I-5) and one block north of East Roanoke Street (and SR 520), on the north side of Capitol Hill.