

Interfaith banner from www.karunaarts.com

Steven Greenebaum's Services – August-November 2008

Interfaith Community Church
1763 NW 62nd Street Seattle
206-783-1618

www.interfaithcommunitychurch.org

All services: 10:00 AM

Creating cultures of Peace, Justice and Healing for the Earth and All Living Beings

August 24th – Interfaith Open House

From time to time it's good to give voice to what it means to be an Interfaith Church. How can a faith be interfaith? This is a great time to introduce a friend or neighbor to our church. No attempt to convert. Think of it as a spiritual open house. Visitors not only welcome, but encouraged! A social hour will follow.

September 28th – What's Love Got to Do With It?

Love your neighbor. There is no gift greater than love. Tough love. A loving spirit. So what do we mean when we speak of love? And if we could all use a little more love in our lives, what are we looking, hoping for?

October 26th – Where in the World Are We?

As we celebrate United Nations Day, we pause to consider the complexity of our spiritual world – the challenges and opportunities it gives us.

November 23rd – Come, Ye Thankful People

With so much going on, so much pressure, so many problems all over the world, we can sometimes lose the joy of what we have. While there is indeed much to do, and much to change, there is also much to be thankful for. We come together to give thanks, and recharge those spiritual batteries that can sometimes run a little low.

Steven's website www.livinginterfaith.org is a wonderful way to introduce friends and family to what interfaith can mean.