

Interfaith banner from www.karunaarts.com

Steven Greenebaum's Services – April - August 2008

Interfaith Community Church
1763 NW 62nd Street Seattle
206-783-1618

www.interfaithcommunitychurch.org

All services: 10:00 AM

April 27th -- Honoring Passover, the Festival of Freedom

Our second annual Sunday morning Passover Seder Service will be held downstairs. Instead of dinner, we'll be having matzo ball soup as we not only recount the Passover story, but look at it from differing viewpoints.

May 25th – How Much Diversity Can a Faith Community Stand (and still be a community)?

Community by its nature requires a sense of unity. Community demands that there be some irreducible core that each member holds in common. Most faiths still base their sense of community on a common belief about God. What, then, are we to do if within our faith community we have Muslims, Christians, Jews, Native Americans, Buddhists, Atheists and who know who else!??

June 22nd – Feeding the Right Wolf

A traditional Cherokee story about the two wolves within each of us gives us a great question to contemplate. Are we feeding the right wolf?

July 27th – What's A Unitarian?

In many ways, Unitarian Universalists share our Interfaith outlook. Who are they? Where did they come from?

August 24th – Bring a Friend Sunday

From time to time it's good to give voice to what it means to be an Interfaith Church. How can a faith be interfaith? This is a great time to introduce a friend or neighbor to our church. No attempt to convert. Think of it as a spiritual open house. Visitors not only welcome, but encouraged! A pot-luck will follow.

Steven's website www.livinginterfaith.org is a wonderful way to introduce friends and family to what interfaith can mean.