

Westwood Neighborhood Council presents a community conversation about the Sealth-Denny School project

Seattle School District is moving forward with plans to combine the Denny Middle School & Sealth High School (6th through 12th grade) on the Sealth High School site

- Learn what the Westwood Neighborhood Council has found out about the School District's plans for Sealth and Denny.
- What happens to the current Denny site when the school moves?
- What are potential impacts to the surrounding community?
- Participate in community dialogue about planning for the future.

Construction for the new schools will begin in 2008.
Decision-making for the site of the present Denny Middle School will begin soon.
